THE CHAMPION

Champions come and go, but there always must be championship contests. Rhode Island Red was engaged in very strenuous training as was also Web Foot, the duck. Both seemed to be in the prime of condition. For this was the day of the big event. They start for the arena where the crowd has collected to witness the contest.

At last they are brought together Pug Bird, acting as referee introduces them. The contestants shake hands and then turn and fly to two nests where they start laying, at first the score keeping is easy but eggs are laid fast and furious.

After a time Web Foot gets the better of the battle and Red passes out. The crowd carry Web Foot away on their shoulders proving that. "Nothing Succeeds Like Success."
